

Christ Church Anglican Eblast for July 24, 2020

This is Reverend Cathy's last Sunday with us as our Rector.

We will miss her very much!

Her skill as a preacher is among the many gifts she has shared with us. Time after time, she has made the scriptures relevant to today's world, bringing the stories to life, underscoring the help they give us in our daily lives.

We'll be listening especially hard today, Cathy!

COME TO CHURCH ONLINE!

Join us, in the safety of your own home for an online, interactive church service, a liturgy of the Word. To sign up for a service this Sunday, July 26th at 10:30am, please email the church office at office@christchurchanglican.ca, or by calling 519-539-1330.

To help us organize the services, please sign up ASAP!

PARISH SEARCH COMMITTEE

To date the committee has had no direct response from the Diocese on candidates to interview to be our new Incumbent. However, the committee is in discussions with Archdeacon Graham Bland to act as Interim Priest, to guide us until we have a new priest in place.

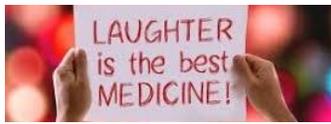

CHRIST CHURCH 2ND ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT- MEAFORD GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Another great day for those who golfed. Cathy's and Viv's mutual farewells were wonderful. Thanks to Nathan for his excellent photography and memory making skills and thanks to all who came out to join in the fun, and also to those who wanted to join in, but were not able to risk it, due to COVID-19...you were missed. Here are a few pictures.

I wanted to take this opportunity to say thank you to everyone who contributed to my going away present and made it a very special day for me. I am very grateful for the thoughtful gift and your friendship. Although I'll miss being your admin person, I will thoroughly enjoy being a fellow parishioner! It was great to see you and I hope we can be together again, soon.

A. A. A. D. D. – CLASSIC RETIREMENT SYNDROME

Recently, I was diagnosed with A. A. A. D. D. – Age-Activated Attention Deficit Disorder.

This is how it manifests itself:

You decide to water your garden.

As you turn on the hose in the driveway, you look over at your car and decide the car needs washing.

As you start toward the garage, you notice that there is mail on the porch table that you brought up from the mail box earlier.

You decide to go through the mail before you wash the car.

You lay the car keys down on the table, put the junk mail in the trash bin under the table, and notice that the bin is full.

So, you decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the trash first.

But then you think, since you are going to be near the mailbox when you take out the garbage anyway, you may as well pay the bills first.

You take your cheque book off the table, and see that there is only one check left. Your extra checks are in your desk in the study, so you go inside the house to your desk where you find the can of Coke that you had been drinking.

You are going to look for your checks, but first you need to push the Coke aside so that you don't accidentally knock it over. You see that the Coke is getting warm, and you decide you should put it in the refrigerator to keep it cold.

As you head toward the kitchen with the Coke, a vase of flowers on the counter catches your eye: They need to be watered.

You place the Coke down on the work surface, and discover your reading glasses that you've been searching for all morning.

You decide you better put them back on your desk, but first you are going to water the flowers.

You set the glasses back down on the work top, fill a container with water and suddenly you spot the TV remote. Someone has left it on the kitchen table.

You realize that tonight when you go to watch TV, you will be looking for the remote, but you won't remember that it's on the kitchen table, so you decide to put it back where it belongs, but first you'll water the flowers.

You pour some water in the flower vase, but quite a bit of it spills on the floor. So, you set the remote back down on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill.

Then, you head down the hall trying to remember what you were planning to do.

At the end of the day:

- The car isn't washed.
- The bills aren't paid.
- There is a warm can of Coke sitting on the work surface.
- The flowers don't have enough water.
- There is still only one check in my cheque book.
- You can't find the TV remote.
- You can't find your glasses and you don't remember what you did with the car keys.

Then, when you try to figure out why nothing got done today. You are really baffled because you know you were busy all day long and you're really tired. You realize this is a serious problem, and you'll try to get some help for it, but first you'll check your email.

P.S. You just remembered you left the water running...
